JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant, TODD HEBERT, guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed on Counts 1 and 2 of the Information to a term of: TWELVE (12) MONTHS AND ONE (1) DAY. This term consists of 12 months and one day on each of Counts 1 and 2, all such terms to be served CONCURRENTLY.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay a fine and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of FOUR (4) YEARS on each of Counts 1 and 2, all such terms to run CONCURRENTLY, under the following terms and conditions:

11. Before using a computer or computer-related device capable of accessing the Internet, screen name, password, e-mail account or ISP for the first time, defendant shall notify his Probation Officer. Computers and computer-related devices include, but are not limited to, personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), Internet appliances, electronic games, and cellular telephones, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access or be modified to access the Internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers, or similar media;
12. After notifying his Probation Officer about a particular computer, computer-related device, screen name, password, e-mail account or ISP, defendant need not notify the officer about subsequent use of that particular item. Defendant shall, however, notify his Probation Officer of any additions to, removals from, upgrades of, reinstallations of, repairs of, or other modifications of the hardware or software on any computers, computer-related devices, or peripheral equipment in the aforementioned items within one week of the change;
